

BLOUSE HAS CALL

Favoritism Shown Suits Means Demand for Waists.

Colored Batiste, Dimity and Gingham Are Used—Tiny Pin Tucks Are Featured.

With the marked favoritism which is being shown the tweed and homespun suit for spring, blouse manufacturers specializing in cotton waists are anticipating a big business, states a fashion writer.

Among the fabrics stressed in colored batiste, blouses of this medium having hand-made collars and cuffs of white. The contrast of the rose or sky blue blouse proper with the white collar and cuffs is most springlike. Some of the collars feature hand-drawn work and hand blocking, while the bodice sections are both plain and tucked.

With color a prime factor in spring developments, it is only fitting that blouses should be offered in equally gay shades. Colored dimities are given a place of importance in this collection, and are accorded varied treatments. Bosom front effects are well liked, the yoke defined with hem-stitched lines. Plaited edges are employed for embellishment, and outline collars of dog's ear and regulation type as well as smartly tailored turn-back cuffs. An orchid color blouse treated in this manner is most attractive.

Gingham is a medium also chosen for trimming purposes, and is effective combined with dimity. The gingham is seen in such color combinations as black and white, red and white, green and white and black and white.

The gingham forms edgings for collars and cuffs, and also serves as a finish for tucks decorating the front sections of the blouse. An all-dimity blouse, done in white, has collar and cuffs of contrasting color, showing pin-tucked treatments, the finest of pin tucks being chosen for this purpose.

In the silk numbers which this house is showing, radium silks and pongee are the mediums stressed, and it is stated that pongee is in particularly high favor with buyers. The introduction of a shell edge is noteworthy, and adds a good touch to these models. The radium numbers often show magpie combinations, the shell edge effected through the black couching.

CHARMING FOR SPRING WEAR

A pearl gray gown of crepe de chine is decorated with steel beads. The hat is of brightly colored straw with fringed balloons. Note the slashed sleeves and how they are joined at the wrist.

"DON'T'S" FOR STOUT WOMEN

Suggestions for Matrons Who Desire to Avoid Drawing Attention to Awkwardities.

- If you are plump: Don't go without a corset. Don't wear figured or patterned materials. Don't wear materials that have a nap, are woolly, or have a sheen. Don't wear light colors. Don't show your waistline. Don't wear broad panels—use narrow ones. Don't wear kimono sleeves. Don't wear long-haired fur. Don't wear wide-brim hats. Don't try to look youthful and wear your style. Don't wear fluffy dresses. Don't wear colored shoes and stockings. Don't worry. Don't wear round neck lines. Don't wear round hats.

Soft Fabrics for Coats. The use of pile fabrics for spring coats, once launched as a hazard, has now developed into a certainty. Day coats, fashioned in the elaborate modes that are designed for formal wear, especially adopt these lovely soft textures, while many sport models, striking out for a new means of expression, also enlist these fabrics. Taking the place of an altogether new coat fabric is spongee, better known as an interpreter of suits and dresses.

Hedgehog and Porcupine. The hedgehog and porcupine are entirely different families. The true hedgehog does not occur in this country. The porcupine is found in both the Old and New World. The old porcupine are terrestrial and fossorial, while the species found in this hemisphere are arboreal and not fossorial.

Thinking and Doing.

"It is perfectly easy to write '1932' if you only think what you are doing," remarks the Boston Globe.

That is one of the great ifs that continually interpose hazards and obstacles in the path of the weary mundane pilgrim. Possibly it is the most important one of all. The majority of our errors and sins of omission, especially those of a minor character, are due to our failure to think what we are doing. But the mere recognition of this failure and the earnest desire to correct it will not prove sufficient in most cases as an effectual remedy. The great trouble is that it is practically impossible to think what one is doing in very many particular cases.

MRS. MARY A. SPENCER, of Watertown, N. Y., aged 75, who declares she gained fifteen pounds on Tanlac and feels just fine all the time. Was in badly run-down condition.

"Just think of it, at seventy-five years of age to be made well and strong again and gain twelve pounds in weight but this is exactly what I did after taking Tanlac. Not only that I feel years younger," said Mrs. Mary A. Spencer, East St., lifelong resident of Watertown, N. Y.

"For over a year I was in a terribly run-down condition and I was so nervous and restless that many a night I would hear the clock strike every hour. I was able to get very little and lost strength right along, finally becoming so weak I could hardly walk from one room to the other."

"On account of my age I thought my declining health was natural but Tanlac has proved that I was mistaken. I can do all my own housework now, I sleep all night long, wake up in the morning feeling refreshed and just feel fine all the day long. Tanlac can't be praised too much."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Deserved That Doughnut.

Junior's mother was baking doughnuts, and he had been given all that was good for him. Upon asking for another it was denied him and he reluctantly went out to play. In a little while the man from the grocery came with a sack of flour on his shoulder Junior following him into the house and saw his mother give him a nice big doughnut. He said nothing, but went out to play again. In a few minutes he rapped on the door and was invited to come in, whereupon he opened the door and said, "Hello, I am the grocery man, and here is your groceries, now where is my doughnut?"

FREEING THE VICTIM OF NERVOUS HEADACHES

Monday Health Talk No. 73.
By Froude & MacKinnon

The victim of nervous headaches is usually the victim of a poor stomach or an inactive liver. If the liver is inactive it disorders the stomach. If the stomach is the center of weakness, the headaches will only be overcome when the weakness of the stomach is corrected.

The victim of nervous headaches enjoys days of relief, but as time runs on, the headaches come back more and more often. The cause is a mechanical misalignment of spinal joints which causes pressure on spinal nerves, either to the stomach of liver, and in many cases to both. The chiropractor restores the valuable Phosphate Fumes. Millions of tons of phosphate previously wasted will be saved potentially as a result of the perfection of a new reclamation system devised by the United States Department of Agriculture.

I was better in two weeks. I have been back at work now some months, thanks to chiropractic."—A. W. Carter, Chiropractic Research Bureau Statement No. 1253P.

Heretofore heavy annual wastes of valuable phosphate material have occurred during the mining and manufacturing processes. The new method of controlling these losses consists in mixing the "run-of-mine" phosphate with sand and coke and smelting the mass in an electric or fuel-fired furnace. In this process the phosphoric acid is driven off as a fume and may be readily collected in concentrated form.

Unnecessary.

A congregation of negroes was used to hearing sermons that harped continually on hell and eternal punishment. One hot summer day the preacher made no mention of hell. One of the congregation asked him why he had omitted it. "Everything in season," he replied. "The thalimmetah was at ulney-foh while I was a-preachin' dat sthmon. Hell spoke foh him, I reckon."

STATE CONSTITUTION BORN
HERE 143 YEARS AGO.

On April 20, 1777, one hundred and forty-five years ago this week, the first constitution of the state of New York was adopted by the delegates in session in Kingston, and it was ordered that the constitution should be published and read at the court house in Kingston on the following Tuesday, April 22. On that day it was read by Robert Benson, one of the secretaries, who stood on a platform erected on the end of a hoghead. Vice President Pierce presided. Under that constitution General George Clinton, whose remains were interred in the First Dutch Church yard, his monument facing Main street, was elected first governor of the state and was inaugurated in Kingston on the following 15th of July.

erties Hall, the Columbus Hall,
St. Peter's Commandery, No. 317, Knights of St. John of this city, will be present in uniform and take active part in the ball. Dancing will immediately follow the drill to the strains of Balfe's six piece orchestra. A bus will leave the local central post office at 7:15 o'clock sharp to accommodate the expected crowd.

Saturday Note.
"Tommy, dear," said the stern mother, as her son came in from playing; "this is bath night, you know."
"Then I think," answered the boy,
"I'll go out and get a little dirtier."

"Y" AUXILIARY'S
ANNUAL MEETING

Mrs. W. A. Longyear Elected President—New Supervision For Rotary and Kiwanis Luncheons.

There was a large attendance at the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A.
Auxiliary at the building on Friday afternoon. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Charles Lewis who read, appropriately, the story of the crucifixion.

Annual reports of standing committees were read. Mrs. Corn Drake, chairman of the luncheon committee, reported the serving of 121 dinners. Members of the auxiliary have nothing to do with the preparation of the food for these luncheons, but take full charge of the serving of the same. Mrs. J.
Allan Wood, chairman of the membership committee, reported a present membership in the auxiliary of 426 persons. Four new members were received, Mrs. R. L. Marchant, Mrs. Arthur Davis, Mrs. R. T. Ingersoll and Mrs. Volk.

After a careful discussion of the matter, it was voted to provide for the serving of the Rotary and Kiwanis luncheons in a different manner the coming year. Each month a chairman from some one of the churches will be appointed for that month, and ladies in that church will, under their chairman serve the luncheons for one month.
Announcement of the various chairmen will be made at the next meeting of the auxiliary.

After considering ways and means of reimbursing the auxiliary treasury, it was decided to give an auxiliary supper at the Y. M. C. A. in June and a committee was named to make the necessary arrangements which will be announced later.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs.
William A. Longyear; first vice, president, Mrs. W. N. Fessenden; second vice-president, Mrs. Frank Eastman; recording secretary, Mrs.
Morris Safford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harry Walker; treasurer, Miss Beulah Smith.

After the business session a pleasing musical program was rendered by Miss Genevieve Maines and Miss Birdella Babcock, both of whom sang groups of songs which greatly pleased their hearers. Afternoon tea was then served and a social hour enjoyed.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, April 17.—Mrs. James

Mrs. Martin Van Keuren of Bayard street were guests of Mrs. Esther Relyea on Riverside avenue Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Austin Grimes and daughter, Anna Kathryn and son, Thomas of Connelly, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Kathryn Grimes on Broadway.

Mrs. Ella Farnbecker, who has spent a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jones in Kingston, has returned to her home on Salem street.

James Lowe of New York city spent his Easter vacation with his mother, Mrs. Etta Lowe, on Salem street.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cutler and daughter, Violet and sons, Kenneth Elwood and Ernest of Broadway were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Bonesteel in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schweigel of New York city are spending a few weeks with Mr. Schweigel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwei-gel at Oak Hill Farm on Riverside avenue.

Joshua Chambers of Broadway is assisting Sleight Brothers in their coal and grocery business.

The Rev. George E. Wright, D. D., pastor of the Methodist Church delivered two powerful sermons Easter Sunday. Mrs. Kate Rikely sang sweetly, "I Know My Redeemer Liveth," at the morning service and the program at the evening service was well rendered. Special mention should be made of the illuminated duet of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Howe. "When I Survey The Won-derous Cross," and the solo by Professor Richards, "On the Cross." The decorations of Easter lilies and other flowers were very pretty.

Dad's Idea.

vored song was called "Falling Dew," said it reminded him of the rent.

Some Fascinating Facts: "The Invisible Fear" stands among the most sumptuous plays the inimitable star has ever produced. The wardrobe she presents constitutes a style show in itself. Again she has two leading men—Walter tempests and emotional storms. And on top of all—a story

ODD FELLOWS ALLOWED TO SELL

Terms Under Which Hudson Valley
Oil Co. Acquires Old Enlist Property at Franklin Street and Broadway.

County Judge Joseph M. Fowler has issued an order granting the petition of the Odd Fellows' Association of Kingston for leave to sell its real estate at the corner of Broadway and Franklin street to the Hudson Valley Oil Company, Inc., for $9,500. Announcement of the intended sale of the property was made by The Freeman several weeks ago.

The petition of the Odd Fellows' Association shows that the association has no present use or intention to hereafter use the property for the purposes for which it was originally purchased. While the property is tenanted, it shows nevertheless a deficit for each and every year as the carrying charges exceed the total rentals, and the maintenance of the property has become a burden on the association.

The Ulster County Savings Institution holds two mortgages covering the property for a total of $5,000, both of which the Hudson Valley Oil Company agrees to assume and pay.
In addition to the bank mortgage, there is a mortgage for $1,450 held by Major James H. Everett, and payment of this mortgage will be made to Major Everett out of the cash to be received by the association from the oil company.

The purchase price of the property is $9,500, of which $4,500 is to be in cash. After payment of the Hudson Valley mortgage, the association is to repay advances made by officers and directors from time to time to enable the association to pay its taxes, interest and for necessary repairs. It will pay the cost of the proceedings for the sale of the property and divide whatever sum may remain among the surviving members of the association, they being surviving members in good and regular standing of C. S. Clay Lodge, No.
528, I. O. O. F., upon the dissolution of the association.

The present directors of the Odd Fellows' Association are Edgar T.
Shults, president; William T. Norwood, Lorin D. McLane, William H.
Niles, secretary; Ernest J. Linson, William H. Harris, Frank S. Towne, Walter Hyatt, Louis Kessler, Arthur W. Frolich, E. Otis Van Aken and Rufus Carle.

The property which the association sells to the oil company was purchased some years ago with the intention of erecting a building suitable for lodge purposes, or converting the present building into such a building if possible. As shown by the petition of the association, the venture has not proved successful and individual officers and directors have been compelled from time to time to make advances to the association with which to meet the taxes and interest and to keep the property in ordinary repair.

The property for many years prior to its purchase by the Odd Fellows was occupied by the late Edward B. Enlist as his residence.

tions are that the road will be completed and open to traffic before

A school teacher in Detroit received the following note from the mother of one of her pupils this spring:

"Teacher: I hear that matric is bad in her grammar and has trouble with it. I do not desire that matric shall ingage in grammar. I prefer her to ingage in more useful studies.
I can learn her to speak and write proper myself. I have been through two grammars and I can't say that they ever done me any good. I prefer matric to ingage in drawing or vokal music on the piano."

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Splendid Version of a Popular Style.

3819. A clever adaptation of the season's best style. For wear on any occasion the blouse may be of chif-fon, crepe de chine or net, and the dress of georgette, tricotette, taffeta, faille or velvet. The style is good for serge, velours, duvetyn, gabardine, twill and check or plaid suiting, with linen, silk or madras for the blouse.

The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 16, 18 and 20 years. An 18 year size will require 2 1/4 yards of 32 inch material for the gumpie, and 3 1/4 yards of 44 inch material for the dress. The width of the skirt is 2 1/4 yards at the foot.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

SEDER SERVICE AT TEMPLE EMANUEL.

A Jewish Ceremony 3,400 Years Old.

The time-honored traditional Seder service was observed at Temple Emanuel in celebration of the Feast of Passover with dignity and impressive ceremonies befitting the occasion. This ceremony, explained Dr. Kaplan, is very ancient, dating back to the time of Israel's law giver some thirty-four hundred years ago. Nearly three thousand years before America was discovered. The Jews have observed some of these ceremonies without interruption all these centuries.
The rabbi presided over the ceremony assisted by the officers and chior of the congregation. The table, for the ceremony, were arranged by Mesdames Jacob Forst and A. Vogel. Thanks to the courtesy of the Rev. Dr. Ellis who provided the extra chairs, there was a seat for everyone of the large gathering present. The refreshments were furnished by the individual members. A friend, whose name was not revealed, sent fifty dollars for the furtherance of the good work of the congregation.
The holiday will last all week.

GOD IS NOT DEAD

Despite Alleged Victories of "Wets."
Says Dr. Chase.

Mr. Editor:

I note that the papers are making a great ado because in the election of a congressman in the central part of the state on Tuesday last—on a stormy day when multitudes in the country could not get to the polls, but when the voters were out in the cities, the Republican candidate who ran on a dry platform did not get as many votes as are usually given, and therefore it is a sure proof that the country is going wet.

It would be much nearer the truth to say that because the present administration at Washington is not satisfying to many of the people, the trend of thought and the casting of votes are against the Republican party.

Why not be fair? Why not ring the changes on what has been done in New Jersey? There has been no brief reference to it that but few people understand that when the governor, who was going to make his state as wet as the Atlantic ocean, nominated a notorious wet, the senate immediately refused to confirm him. Why not publish again the fact that when he vetoed various dry bills, the legislature immediately passed them over his veto. Why not sound the trumpet and let the people know that even New Jersey has ratified the 18th amendment.

Those dry victories are greater than any wet ones.

How the wets whistle to keep their courage up—

God is not dead—"He that sitteth in the heaven shall laugh; the Lord shall have them in derision."

P. N. CHASE.

Invest With Us in a Rapidly Growing but Sound Enterprise

Millions and millions of dollars have gone out of this section of the country to finance enterprises which were primarily speculative in character. Much of it has never come back—either an interest or principal.

You now have an opportunity to invest safely in a 6% First Mortgage Bond of a company whose property and operations you can have under your personal observation. A company based on long established and successful business.

The proceeds from the sale of these bonds will be used to develop a new water power and for additional transmission lines to take care of the rapidly growing demand for electric power by the communities of the Central Hudson Valley.

There is a valuable conversion feature in connection with these bonds.
They may be exchanged for the Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Company, paying 7%.

BARGE CANAL EDUCATION WEEKS

Mayor Crane has issued the following proclamation.

The weeks of April 17th and 24th have been designated by the State Waterways Association as Barge Canal Weeks. During that period a campaign to educate and familiarize the people of New York state with this magnificent waterway will be conducted. More than a century has passed since the inception of the Erie Canal, which more than anything else, contributed to the commercial development of New York state, making it the Empire State of the Union.

The Barge Canal promises to continue this development and assist the state in maintaining its supremacy. Every community along the canal or contiguous to it may benefit accordingly. So we are free to ask the citizens of Kingston to assist in the movement to promote, advertise and create interest in the canal during the weeks mentioned. It is your right, your investment, your money has built it, its benefits are yours to share. BOTTLES AND PISTOLS SEIZED NEAR SHAF 3

Greene county officers last Friday visited the premises of Tony Guidice between Prattville and Lexington and searched the shack in which he keeps lodgers and boarders who are employed at Shaft No. 3 of the Shandaken tunnel. Guidice was not at home, but one of his helpers was found stirring up a quantity of kerosene and water which were in a jar. They seized this for fear that it might develop alcohol and under the floor of one of the rooms they found two revolvers and a bottle which they believed contained hooch. Outside the house they found three bottles supposed to hold hooch, which had been covered by leaves. Guidice rented part of the farm owned by William Rappleyea and erected shacks for the accommodation of the laborers employed in the vicinity of Shaft No. 3.

GRIFFITH IS BELIEVED SAFE

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, April 17.—Easter Monday, feared because it was the anniversary of an uprising in Ireland six years ago, passed without a word of any serious disorders being received from the Emerald Isle.

Up to 7 o'clock tonight, the only happening which marred an otherwise comparatively peaceful day, was the attempted assassination of Michael Collins, leader of the Free State. An early report printed by the Daily Express, that Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eirinn, had been kidnapped, had been unconfirmed and Griffith was believed to be safe.

Last year's Easter collection far surpassed any former one, and this year it was increased 133 per cent over that. The friends in Kingston, and elsewhere who assisted in paying for the repairs last fall will realize that their money was well expended. The pastor and his family enjoyed a royal Easter dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Saunders.

Sunday School Easter Services.

A very pleasant time was spent at the Sunday school services held in the Chapel of the First Reformed Church, Easter Day. The exercises were well rendered and the singing of the carols by the school accompanied by piano, violin and cornet, showed that much credit is due the committee who had these services in charge and Mr. Fredenburgh the musical director.

Her son, Frank Eschly, was killed on the water works in Shaft No. 7 at High Falls on October 27, 1908, leaving a wife and three children, all of whom are still living. Y.; Mrs. Elizabeth Richards, age unknown, Christ Church, New Zealand; and Frederick Seymore, 49 years, of California. The funeral was held from the residence on April 5, with the Rev. Mr. Cameron to deliver the sermon, which was a very good one, telling of her sickness, gentleness and patience as he knew best. A flat bouquet of white lilies with a white dove from Mr. Eschly; pillow with "Mother" from her children; flat bouquet from her grandchildren; flat bouquet from Mr. Bates; star from Mrs. David McLaughlin; flat bouquet from Fred Pine and a pillow with Ladies' Aid Society from the Ladies' Aid Society of Rinnewater. The Easter display in the show windows of The Wonderful Company's store on Wall street has attracted the attention of a great many people on account of its odd and original character. A painted background of full life figures and wisteria vines is the result of considerable work on the part of Miss Edwards, who is a graduate of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn. In the foreground are a few articles of spring attire, their bright colors harmonizing with the artistic background in such a way as to attract the attention of the passer-by.

COURT DECIDES AGAINST LAFRINTZ

Judgment for Outside Watchman of Payne New York House Reversed by Court of Appeals—May Have Hearing in Givens Action.

The court of appeals has decided that Claus Lafrintz, who was employed for eighteen years as a watchman by the late Colonel Oliver H. Payne of West Park at his town house in New York city was not intended by Colonel Payne to be included among the employees whom he remembered in his will because Lafrintz was not employed "in" the house, while the bequests were made only to such persons as were customarily employed as part of the Colonel's household "in" the house.

Payne Whitney and the other executors under Colonel Payne's will refused to pay Lafrintz, who claimed he was entitled to a legacy amounting to $5,000 under the third article of the will by which provision was made for numerous employees. The controversy was submitted to the supreme court in New York county under an agreed statement of facts, by which it appeared that Lafrintz was "customarily and continuously employed as a watchman, watching the exterior of the house." The appellate division of the first department affirmed the judgment, but the court of appeals now sets it aside and says Lafrintz is not entitled to share in Colonel Payne's bequests.

The Lafrintz case has particular interest in Ulster county because a case brought by Albert W. Givens, who was employed as electrician at the Payne estate at West Park and who sued to recover a bequest under the same article of the will, is now pending in the court of appeals.

In the Givens case, which was tried before Judge Hasbrouck, a decision was rendered in favor of Givens for $4,229.14, and the appellate division of the first department affirmed the judgment. In his favor on the authority of the decision rendered by the appellate division of the first department in the Lafrintz case, Brinner, Caulfield & Brinner are attorneys for Givens.

In the Lafrintz case, Gustav Goodman of New York city was attorney for Lafrintz and E. DeT. Bechtel was attorney for the executors.

The opinion of the court of appeals, written by Judge McLaughlin, and concurred in by Judges Hiscock, Hogan, Cardozo, Pound, Crane and Andrews, is as follows:

This appeal is from a judgment of the appellate division, first department, one of the justices dissenting, in favor of the plaintiff, entered upon the submission of a controversy on an agreed statement of facts pursuant to sections 1273-1281 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

On the 27th of June, 1917, Oliver H. Payne died, leaving a last will and testament, which was duly admitted to probate, and letters testamentary issued to the executors therein named. The question presented by the submission, and now by the appeal from the judgment of the appellate division entered thereon, involves the construction of a portion of the third article of the testator's will.

Before proceeding to consider the question it may not be out of place to call attention to the fact that in a submission of this character no inferences can be drawn from the facts stated except those that follow as matter of law. (People v. Hewson, 224 N. Y., 136.) Inferences in such proceedings are not to be indulged in if they are drawn from controverted or equivocal facts. (Cerr v. Diener, 210 N. Y., 156.) Unless facts be stated from which a legal conclusion can be drawn, then the issue is one which must be presented to the jury.

sent and decided in an action and not in a statutory proceeding of this character. (Marx v. Brogan, 188 N. Y., 431.)

It appears from the submission that the testator had a home in New York city, a country place at West Park, Ulster county, N. Y., and another at Thomasville, Ga. He also had a yacht, fully manned and equipped.

The plaintiff at the time of the death of the testator, was and for upwards of eighteen years had been in his service, customarily and continuously employed as a watchman, watching the exterior of his New York residence. By reason of that fact it is claimed he comes within the provision of the third article of the will hereafter quoted and entitled to receive from the estate the sum of $5,000, with interest from the 16th of August, 1918.

In the third article of the will various bequests are made. First, to Emma Christine Larson, the sum of $50,000. This is followed by bequests to certain specified persons, if they be employed on his yacht at the time of his death: to his sailing master, $25,000; chief steward, $3,000; chef, $2,000; assistant chef, $1,000; carpenter, $1,500; boatswain, $2,000; and quartermaster, $1,000. Next, if the persons be in his employ at the time of his death: To the superintendent of his country place at West Park, Ulster county, N. Y., $5,000, and to his wife, $5,000; to the superintendent of his place at Thomasville, Ga., $5,000, and to his wife, $5,000; to his chauffeur, $3,000, and to an employee in his household at Thomasville, Ga., $3,000. Then follows the provision of the third article which is involved in the controversy here under consideration, which reads as follows:

"I give and bequeath the following additional legacies, with my tender farewell and warm thanks for faithful and careful attendance: * * * To each person not hereinbefore named, who at the time of my death shall be in my service, and shall then be customarily employed as part of my household in my house in New York city, or in my country house in Ulster county, New York, the sum of three thousand dollars, if he or she shall have been in my service for two years, with the further sum of two hundred dollars for each year or portion of a year in excess of two years, and the sum of one thousand dollars if he or she shall have been in my service for less than two years."

Was the plaintiff employed as a part of the testator's household in New York city at the time of his death? Is the opinion he was not. The submission states that he was "customarily and continuously employed as a watchman, watching the exterior of the house." It will be observed that the testator, in the third article, specifically named those who were not customarily employed as part of his household. Then he gave "to each person not hereinbefore named, who shall then be customarily employed as part of my household in my house in New York city or in my country house in Ulster county, New York * * *." By this provision, it seems to me, he clearly intended to exclude all other persons in his general employ who had not been named. The beneficiary must not only have been in his service, but he must have been customarily employed as "part of my household in my house."

The word "household" is defined as "an organized family and whatever pertains to it as a whole; a domestic establishment (Century Dictionary.)" Also as "those who dwell under the same roof and compose a family; a domestic establishment; family" (Webster's New International Dictionary.) According to the lexicographers "household" means a family living together (Woodward v. Murray, 18 Johns, 400.) "Household" is equivalent to the word "family" (People v. Tait, 261 Ill., 197.)

In Frazer v. Weld (177 Mass., 513) where a testator gave and bequeathed to each one of his servants who at the time of his death should have been in his employ at his home, or at his stable connected therewith, for a certain time, the sum of $1,000, the court was of the opinion that the word "homestead" was used as the equivalent of the word "dwelling house," and therefore that the plaintiff, whose work was not in the dwelling house, but plowing, chopping wood, acting as watchman, etc., did not come within the provision of the will.

In Ogle v. Morgan (1 DeG., M. & G., 369) it was held that a head gardener did not take under a will giving "to each person as a servant in my domestic establishment at the time of my decease a year's wages beyond what shall be due to him or her for wages."

In the present case, under the submission, it does not appear that the plaintiff either slept in the house, took his meals there, or in fact was ever in the house, and the bequests were only to such persons as were customarily employed as part of the testator's household in his house. The plaintiff certainly cannot be said to have been thus employed. It could just as well be urged that a gardener or a coachman or a person employed to render service of any kind about the place came within the provision.

The testator desired to reward members of his household in his house, and to exclude those who were not members of his household in his house unless they were specifically mentioned.

I am of the opinion that the plaintiff does not come within the provision of the will which has been considered, and therefore the judgment of the Appellate Division should be reversed and judgment directed in favor of the defendants, without costs.

Judgment accordingly?.

COFFEY WILL OPPOSE PAUL CLEMENTS TONIGHT

Vince Coffey local welterweight will exchange blows with Paul Clements tonight at Bolton Hall, Troy. This contest was postponed from last week due to Coffey's illness. Coffey put the finishing touches on his training Saturday in a Troy gymnasium and he is said to be in excellent condition.

Tonight's show will be an elimination affair to pick a boy to meet Frankie Laureate, providing the fans believed that the two bouts produce a boy whom they think is capable of extending the Troy wallop. Cards will be distributed before the show and, following the bout, the fans will write their selection and drop the cards into a box at exit.
